

CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT VICKI L. ROBERTSON

Chief Master Sergeant Vicki L. Robertson is the Command Chief Master Sergeant, Headquarters Air Reserve Personnel Center, Buckley Space Force Base, Colo. She represents the highest level of enlisted leadership in the center, which involves advising the commander on the matters influencing the health, morale, welfare and effective utilization of more than 500 active duty, Air National Guard, Reserve and civilian employees, both on site and at various operating locations across the nation. Chief Robertson provides leadership and guidance as the commander's representative to numerous committees, councils, boards, military and civilian functions worldwide, impacting nearly 1.3 million Air National Guard, Air Force Reserve, active duty Air Force and retired members.

Chief Robertson first joined the U.S. Air Force in April 1990. After completing Technical Training at Keesler Air Force Base, Miss. in August 1990, she was stationed at Zweibrücken Air Force Base, Germany, as an Aerospace Control Operator assigned to the 601st Tactical Control Squadron. In November 1992, Chief Robertson transferred to the U.S. Army Reserve as a personnelist with the 1st Battalion in Guymon, Okla. She later returned to the Air Force as a traditional Reservist in January 1995, serving as personnel specialist with the 302nd Mission Support Squadron at Peterson AFB, Colo. Since joining the Air Force Reserves, Chief Robertson's diverse background includes assignments as an administrative specialist, paralegal specialist, law office superintendent, services craftsman and as an Individual Mobilization Augmentee with HQ, Pacific Air Forces.
