

Harold Pope Jr. serves as the newly elected Senator from District 23. He initially enlisted and later commissioned serving honorably as an Acquisitions Officer (Program Manager) and Chemist, working on satellite programs, weapon systems, and nuclear deterrence, and as a Security Cooperation Officer. His career in the Air Force culminated with his retirement at Kirtland, AFB in 2018 with more than 20 years of honorable service. He serves as Co-Chair of the Military & Veteran's Affairs Committee, Vice Chair of the Senate Education Committee, and as a member of the Senate Conservation Committee. Harold Pope Jr. serves as the newly elected Senator from District 23. He initially enlisted and later commissioned serving honorably as an Acquisitions Officer (Program Manager) and Chemist, working on satellite programs, weapon systems, and nuclear deterrence, and as a Security Cooperation

Officer. His career in the Air Force culminated with his retirement at Kirtland, AFB in 2018 with more than 20 years of honorable service. He serves as Co-Chair of the Military & Veteran's Affairs Committee, Vice Chair of the Senate Education Committee, and as a member of the Senate Conservation Committee.