

Rebecca Emerson is an Active Duty Army spouse. She is the parent of two children, one born with Down Syndrome. Rebecca retired in 2020 from Active Duty in the Air Force and served in a variety of leadership roles. The majority of her 23 year military experience was as a Government Contracting Officer. In her current role as Executive Director of Exceptional Families of the Military she connects military families with Disabilities, Special Healthcare Needs, or additional educational needs from all military branches to navigate within the Exceptional Family Member Programs (EFMP) and identify areas of improvement that affect families.