

Lee Kelley assumed the duties of director of Military Community Support Programs for Military Community and Family Policy on July 24, 2017. As director, Ms. Kelley is responsible for the leadership, management and oversight of three centrally funded Department of Defense multimillion dollar programs – Military OneSource, Military and Family Life Counseling, and the Spouse Education and Career Opportunities Program. Military OneSource and Military and Family Life Counseling provided non-medical counseling which is confidential, short-term counseling designed to address a range of concerns that may detract from military and family readiness. In summer 2019, Ms. Kelley served a 90-day detail as deputy director of the Defense Suicide Prevention Office to support integration of the public health approach to suicide prevention. Ms. Kelley is an enlisted Army veteran and licensed masters-level social worker in the state of Virginia.